Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edgar, Sr., returned Saturday noon from a trip to Tipton, Iowa, his boyhood home, and where he had not been for fifty years. Mr. Edgar says a half century is a good long time in life's span and he found little that was familiar in the old home. Mr. Edgar, we are glad to say, is feeling fine.

Mr. A. I. Willard returned Sunday from Chicago where he had been the past week as a delegate in attendance on the Progressive convention. Mr. W. says it was a great and interesting week in the Windy City. He does not think the Progressives will support Hughes—not by any means.

County Clerk Huff has received word from the State Auditor that the amount appropriated to Iron County from the general road fund for permanent improvement is $552.59. This money is now available and road overseers who desire to share in the appropriation should present their plans at the adjourned term of county court to be held July 17.

Mrs. Malcolm Pender, nee Dora Ake, of Patterson, La., with her two children, are visiting relatives in the city. One of the children has been quite sick since their arrival though it is doing very well at this writing. Mrs. Pender expects to remain here several weeks. From Sunday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "One of the most elaborate and beautiful weddings of the week was that of Miss Theodora Thacher and Francis Ewing Glasgow, which was solemnized at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. Peter's Episcopal Church by Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips, in the presence of a representative gathering of friends and relatives of the young couple."

Mrs. Sophia Elizabeth Mangold of St. Louis has issued cards announcing the marriage of her daughter, Pearl, and Mr. Collins Aloysius LeMaster, June 3, 1916, at St. Thomas church, St. Louis. Dr. and Mrs. LeMaster will be at home Festus, Mo., after July 1st. Friends of the bride and her family in the valley wish the newly married couple every happiness.

Mr. S. P. Ringo tells us that every thing points to a record-breaking attendance at the Baptist Assembly on Arcadia Heights in August. The programs will likely be issued this week. Louis Miller of Arcadia has just completed a residence on the hill for J. M. Douglas, of Dunklin county. It is proposed to begin work at once on a pavilion, about 40 feet square, to be used by the young people as a place to conduct their services.

Married—in Fredericktown, Mo., Saturday, June 3, 1916, Miss Mollie Brown Hill, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hill, formerly of Ironton, Mo., and Mr. Roy Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor, of Jackson, Mo. The young couple first met at Marvin College about four years ago, where they both attended school. They will make their future home in Osceola, Arkansas, where Mr. Taylor has a position. The Register extends very best wishes.

Rev. and Mrs. Keach's youngest son, George, is a member of the United States Band now on the boarder of Mexico. He is with the 12th regiment near Columbus who are doing police duty. It is about fifty miles from Dead Man's Valley, Arizona, which is said to be the hottest place in the United States. He complains very much of the heat and the monotony. He says he would be glad if they would do something to get up excitement.—Fredericktown Democrat-News.

From Friday's St. Louis Republic: "A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday in the Federal Court by Charles S. Marsh of 7050 Berlin avenue, former vice president of the Bankers' Trust Company of St. Louis. Liabilities were listed at $72,577.71 and assets at $14,445. Marsh also listed unsecured claims at $17,055.99. As an accommodation paper was placed at $5,512.85. The trust company has been in the hands of a receiver since 1914."

From Sunday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "A recent wedding of interest, which took place on Saturday, June 3, was that of Miss Pearl Mangold and Dr. Collins C. LeMaster of Festus, Mo., who were married at St. Thomas' Church at 8 o'clock mass, the wedding being quiet, owing to the recent death of the father of the bride. Miss Anna M. Boever attended the bride as maid of honor, and Miss Luella Kaletta was bridesmaid. Mr. Arthur Eberle served the bridegroom as best man and the groomsmen was William Phelan."

The Ozark Business College at Bismarck, Mo., is now conducting a summer term. President G. W. Moothart, of the famous Moothart Business Colleges of Southeast Missouri, is in charge. Students may enroll on any school day. We will issue a written position guarantee to the first twelve graduates of this school. Write for particulars at once, and send names of young people interested, receiving cash commission, according to our plan. Address G. W. MOOTHART, President, Bismarck, Missouri.

From the De Soto Times: "W. L. Hulse of this place has purchased a 2-ton Republic truck and is now operating a freight line between here and St. Louis. He received the truck Monday and initiated it by hauling 3500 pounds of freight out of the city. Mr. Hulse has for the last several years hauled freight overland from Grubville and that section, to St. Louis with teams. He has made a specialty of hauling poultry, eggs and the like. He expects to continue to haul such products and already has contracts with several of the country stores. By this method and by hauling freight on his return trips he feels certain he will be able to make a success. His truck is built so that he can haul live stock."

At the adjourned term of County court held on Monday, bids were received and opened from Miller & Borcherting, St. Louis, Missouri Bridge & Iron Co., and Blodgett construction Co., of Kansas City, for the construction of two bridges across Black River, one at Carter's Mill and one at Hunt's Farm. Miller & Borcherting having submitted the lowest bid, the court awarded the contracts to that company at the price of $14,400, the bids being 7,800 for the 200 foot span at Carter's Mill and $6,600 for the 180 foot span at Hunt's Farm. The contract calls for the completion of the work by January 1st, 1917, on both bridges. A donation of $1,000 towards the building of each bridge will be made by interested citizens which will reduce the amount to be paid by the county to $12,400.—Centerville Outlook.

The following is reproduced from the Ft. Worth, Texas, Record of June 1st: "Mrs. H. Peters, 75 years old, died Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Stewart, 2453 1/2 North Main street. Mrs. Peters came from Fort Worth from Commerce on December 1, and while walking along one of the main streets on that day was knocked down by two small girls, who were frightened at an automobile. Mrs. Peters developed pneumonia on that day and has never left her bed. Besides Mrs. Stewart, another daughter, Mrs. L. H. Ducker, of this city, survives. The remains will be placed in St. Andrew's Episcopal church Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and will lie in state until Friday morning, when services will be conducted by Rev. B. B. Ramage. Place of burial will be announced later."

The Ironton School Board last Saturday opened the bids received for the purchase of the $15,000 school bonds. There were fourteen bidders in all and the price offered for bonds ranged from par to a premium of $397 on the entire issue. The highest bidder was the Hancock Bond Company of Chicago, who offered a premium of $397, but as this bid was accompanied by a personal check, instead of a certified check, the board decided to award the bonds to the next highest bidder, Kaufman, Smith, Emert & Co., who offered a premium of $312. As soon as the bond issue is approved by the attorney of Kaufman, Smith, Emert & Co., the bonds will be delivered to the purchaser. The school board has about concluded to let voters decide where to locate the high school building and an election for that purpose will probably be called soon. It is now conceded that the building will not be ready for occupancy before the fall of 1917.

I drove over from Greenville in a car last week. My first trip over the new road. It was simply fine. I never expected to find such a good road. I don't blame Wayne county for bonding the county. I hope Iron county will do the same. So far, so good. I want to thank Sam Lee, through the papers, for being so kind to me in taking me with him to Elismore, Hunter and Van Buren, and introducing me to all the merchants in these towns. It was a great help to me and I am very thankful to Sam for his kindness. He is certainly doing a fine business selling groceries, etc. I was sorry to find Bob Gladden in such bad health. It looks like he will not be with us much longer. Bob is a big hearted fellow. He told me he never turned away a hungry man in his life.
